

CHINESE MINISTER OF WAR REPORTED SLAIN BY TROOPS

Yin Tchang Declared Victim of Mutineers, Who Join Forces With the Rebels.

KILL ANOTHER GENERAL

Cheo Erh Feng Assassinated by Own Men at Chengtu,
Which Is Captured.

SHANGHAI, China, Oct. 25.—A Chinese newspaper in an extra edition to-day, announces that the Minister of War Gen. Yin Tchang commanding the imperial forces, has been assassinated by his own troops.

The paper also stated that Cheo Erh Feng has been seized by revolutionists. Great excitement there is reported.

PEKING, China, Oct. 25.—The Chinese newspaper reports that the troops at Chengtu, the capital of Szechuen Province, have mutinied and killed Gen. Cheo Erh-Feng, commander of the imperial forces, and joined the rebels, who now hold the capital.

The legations have received no news officially from Szechuen Province for the past ten days. They ordinarily discuss the reports published in the Chinese papers, but consider the statement that Chengtu has fallen and the imperial commander been assassinated as not improbable. The American Legation is making further inquiries.

An official communication states that Gen. Yin Tchang telegraphed the Government from Szechuen yesterday that the imperial troops had advanced to Shokou and he was following them. The general added that the army had engaged in a number of skirmishes with the rebels, but no battle would take place until the imperial army was fully consolidated in its position.

The rebels are throwing up entrenchments at Kiating. Their work is being conducted in an orderly manner. Wuhan, Hankow and Soochow expect that the revolutionists will take over their local governments soon. The entire Province of Szechuen is practically controlled by the rebels.

Manchu officials high and low, some wearing disguises, are coming into Shanghai from every quarter. All try to find refuge in the foreign concessions.

The American Legation is asking that more warships be sent to Chinese waters, as the present number is not sufficient to cover all the ports which are in danger. No American vessel is now available at Changsha where there are twenty-nine Americans.

TSINAN, SHANTUNG PROVINCE, China, Oct. 25.—Public sympathy throughout the province of Shantung is with the revolutionists. Only the officials cling to the dynasty, and they are extremely nervous. The mass of the people awaits the overthrow of the Manchus.

HURT IN BRIDGE RUNAWAY.
SURE BOSS WILL BE SORE.

Picks Himself Up, Gets on Car and Betakes Himself to His Place of Business.

To ride in a careening wagon behind a frightened horse, at full speed, and to be hurled out, catapult fashion, into the street, is the most ordinary thing in the world to Nathan Glostein of No. 2176 Siegel street, Brooklyn, judging by his attitude after an exciting runaway on the Williamsburg Bridge to-day.

Covered with blood from numerous cuts, Mr. Glostein picked himself up, looked at the horse, which was dying after having run its head full tilt into a concrete pillar, turned away and remarked:

"Well, I'm going to slip up to the store and tell the boss about this. I bet he'll be sore as the devil."

Fortwith, Mr. Glostein took a car and rode to the business place of his employers, Louis & Cohen, dyers and cleaners, at No. 34 Barry street, Brooklyn, where he gave his report of the accident. Then he consented to be treated by a physician.

Glostein was driving the horse attached to a light wagon, when the harness broke and the animal took fright and dashed away. For 200 yards Glostein succeeded in guiding the frightened horse safely through the traffic, but at the Brooklyn anchorage the animal swerved and ran full force into a concrete pillar.
